Hi Becky,

It is ok to bring family along but they need to be listed on the TAF under who will you be traveling with. Also, be very explicit that their expenses will be paid for privately. It is certainly possible.

Subject: Question concerning DEA seminar

Hi Julie,

I have a question for you regarding the travel for DEA Seminar in June. I would like to know if travel with family is allowed if, of course, family expenses are completely separate from my work travel expenses? I am really excited about going to this seminar but at the same time torn to leave my 3 year old for this length of time. I don't want to just bring family along if it will get me into trouble. Let me know. Thanks for your time.
